

ST. LOUIS METROPOLITAN ALUMNAE CHAPTER OF DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY, INC.

Tomorrow's Business Leader Scholarship

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is the largest African-American sorority in the nation, which has since its founding, drawn more than 250,000 members. Delta is a public service organization with a social action and involvement component that focuses on leadership, scholarship, and community service.

The St. Louis Metropolitan Alumnae Chapter was chartered on January 11, 1998 by a group of forty-five Sorors who were united by their desire to recommit to Delta's mission and cardinal virtues. The chapter focuses on supporting the preparation of young people economically, academically, spiritually, and socially for their transition successfully from high school to college and the adult world. We are strongly committed to sisterhood, scholarship, and service to the community.

The St. Louis Metropolitan Alumnae Chapter is awarding the Tomorrow's Business Leader Scholarship to a student that exemplifies a business leader for the future. Strong businesses are important for our nation's economy. Students should expose themselves to basic business and entrepreneurial skills for building successful careers. Our hope is that your college education and your business plan will inspire you to start your own business venture in the future.
